

International Symposium on the Specific Methodology of Chinese Studies in the PhD Program: the Transfer of Concepts and Categories from One Socio-Cultural Context into Another

Korte, December 16 – 17, 2017

Saturday, December 16

| | | |
|---------------|---------------------------|--|
| 12:00 – 12:30 | Jana S. Rošker | On the Importance of Intercultural Methodology in Chinese Studies |
| 12:30 – 13:15 | Livio Zanini | Tea Culture and Social Strata |
| 13:15 – 13:30 | Coffee break | |
| 13:30 – 14:15 | Sabrina Ardizzoni | The Image of Women in the Tulou Villages through the Lens of Modern Gender Studies |
| 14:15 – 15:00 | Marko Ogrizek | Transferring Confucianism – Intercultural Perspectives on China and Japan |
| 15:00 – 15:15 | Coffee break | |
| 15:15 – 16:00 | Tea Sernelj | Some Problems in Xu Fuguan's Comparative Methods |
| 16:00 – 16:30 | Nataša Vampelj Suhadolnik | Problems and Solutions in Researching Chinese Art |
| 16:30 – 17:00 | Maja Veselič | Anthropology in Chinese Studies |
| 17:00 – 17:30 | Mateja Petrovčič | Some Problems of Sinological Research through the Linguistic Perspective |

Sunday, December 17

| | | |
|---------------|----------------|--|
| 10:00 – 10:30 | Katja Kolšek | Methodology of Intercultural and Comparative Philosophy |
| 10:30 – 11:00 | Matej Zima | Li Zhi and the Problem of Interpretation |
| 11:00 – 12:15 | Coffee break | |
| 12:15 – 12:45 | Živa Petrovčič | Concepts and Categories in Intercultural Research in Chinese History |
| 12:15 – 12:30 | Jana S. Rošker | Closing remarks |